TIP OF THE MONTH

Halloween Safety

Halloween is a treat for humans, but it can be tricky for pets!

- Keep candy (especially chocolate and xylitol-containing sweets) far out of reach. Even small amounts can be dangerous.
- Choose costumes wisely. Make sure outfits don't restrict movement, vision, or breathing—and always do a quick “comfort check.”
- Trick-or-treaters can be scary. If your dog is nervous around strangers or loud noises, set up a cozy, quiet space away from the door.
